

Learning Journey YEAR 11 HSC

The Journey Continues

All students to complete RO22 coursework and re-sat RO21 exam in January 2023 The assessment task is marked internally but moderated externally. RO29 will be taught but not assessed.

Reminder to students about Plagiarism, Referencing, Command Words, NEA work.

RO22: LO1 Understand how to communicate effectively
You will learn about verbal, non-verbal, written and specialist communication, together with the factors that that can positively influence communication, also the barriers to communication and ways to overcome them.

RO21 : Exam Revision LO1
Understand how to support individuals to maintain their rights

You will revisit how to support individuals to maintain their rights and why this is important.

RO21 : Exam Revision LO4
Understand how personal hygiene, safety and security measures protect individuals

You will revisit how personal hygiene, safety and security measures protect individuals in care settings

RO21 : Exam Revision LO2
Understand the importance of values of care and how they are applied

You will revisit the values of care for health, social care and early years settings and how they are applied.

RO21 : Exam Revision LO3
Understand how legislation impacts on care settings

You will revisit the legislation that impacts on care settings

RO22: LO2 Understand the personal qualities that contribute to effective care

You will learn the qualities that contribute to effective care, such as patience, understanding, empathy, respect, willingness, sense of humour and cheerfulness

RO22: LO3 Be able to communicate effectively within a health, social care or early years setting

You will learn how to plan and complete an interaction with an individual and a group within a care setting

RO29: Understanding the nutrients needed for good health

You will have input about the dietary needs of individuals throughout their lives and how to create dietary plans for specific dietary needs